

BIOGRAPHY OF THE EDITORIAL BOARD MEMBERS

Name: Pan, Guangwei	Academic & scientific degrees and the year of obtaining them (MSc, PhD, habil, DSc, etc.): Master of Laws from Renmin University of China
Positions held (broken down by countries/regions):
Country/region:	Position: (Current)
China	CEO of China Banking Association <hr/> Director General of the council of China Bankers Institute and Director of the Editorial Board of China Banking <hr/> Member of the council of National Fund for Technology Transfer and Commercialization and member of National Supervisory Committee of Professional Degrees in Finance
Scientific and professional field/Professional experience: Mr. Pan Guangwei previously served at the Ministry of Personnel, Organization Department of the Central Financial Work Committee, Human Resources Department and Training Centre of China Banking Regulatory Commission (CBRC). He has also held positions as the Vice President (Director-General) of Party School of CBRC, and the Director-General & Secretary of the Party Committee of CBRC Shaanxi Office. During the period from September 1995 to December 1996, he took part in the “Training of the Trainers (TOT)” program by the Chinese and Swiss governments. During his work in CBRC, he took charge of domestic and overseas recruitment and CBRC’s cooperation with overseas institutions, including U.S. Federal Reserve and Hong Kong Monetary Authority, in staff exchanges and training.

From May to Sep 2017, Mr. Pan attended two press conferences held by the State Council Information Office as the spokesperson. With his active efforts paid to international exchanges and cooperation for China's banking industry, he has, on behalf of the China Banking Association, developed relationship of mutual trust and friendly cooperation with foreign financial institutions and counterparts, including those in UK, France, Switzerland, Hungary and UAE, and signed MOU on cooperation with a dozen of foreign counterparts.

Honours and awards:

The most important publications from the last ten years (studies, books, book chapters etc.):

Within his tenure at the CBRC Shaanxi Office, Mr. Pan published several reports such as On Stabilising the Financial Support to Serve the Overall Economic and Social Development and Resolving Regional Risks and launched the Seminar on Belt and Road Initiative and Financial Opportunities for Hong Kong senior bankers. He was also the writer, chief editor or associate editor of Banking Process Reengineering, Incentives and Remuneration and Human Resources Development, Green Credit, Chinese Bankers Survey Report, China Banking Association Social Responsibility Report and China Banking Development Report and so on. He has taken proactive efforts in building the banking standards system, leading the formulation of financial standards including China Banking Service Standard Evaluation System and Standards on Building an Accessible Environment of China's Banking Industry.

The full list of publications is available at: www...

